AIR FRANCE INCREASES FUEL SURCHARGE

In response to the extremely high level of fuel prices, Air France is increasing its fuel surcharge by 1 euro on French domestic flights, by 2 euros on medium-haul flights and by 6 euros on long-haul flights. This increase, valid on tickets issued in France as from 4 October 2005, will be withdrawn as soon as the price of the barrel goes below 55 dollars for 30 consecutive days.

Forward-Looking Statements

The information herein contains forward-looking statements about Air France-KLM and its business. These forward-looking statements, which include, but are not limited to, statements concerning the financial condition, results of operations and business of Air France-KLM are based on management's current expectations and estimates. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, many of which are outside of Air France-KLM's control and are difficult to predict, that may cause actual results to differ materially from any future results expressed or implied from the forward-looking statements.
